

SHIPYARD PARK - Fan Code of Conduct

Shipyard Park is a privately-owned complex and reserves the right to remove or ban anyone or any team that violates the Code of Conduct.

Shipyard Park fans are encouraged to support their team. Our goal is to create a first-class experience with integrity, while exhibiting good sportsmanship and maintaining a safe and respectful atmosphere for the teams and fans to enjoy.

In the spirit of sportsmanship, Shipyard Park fans shall:

- Conduct themselves in a manner that represents their team, the organization running the event, and Shipyard Park with honor, dignity, and respect
- Not use vulgar, abusive, racist, sexist, demeaning, or intimidating language at any time
- Support the players, coaches, and officials in a positive manner
- Treat the opposing team, coaches, and fans with courtesy and respect at all times
- Demonstrate the qualities of civility and sportsmanship at all times
- Not engage in cheers that are vulgar or demeaning
- Refrain from playing music with vulgar lyrics or lyrics that are inappropriate to others
- Not bring or consume alcohol
- Refrain from entering the playing field at any time, including after the game
- Be a positive role model for those around them by treating others with courtesy and respect
